Theme: Jesus the Good Shepherd Knows Each of Us

4th Sunday of Easter Year C. May 8, 2022

First Reading Acts 13:14, 43-52, Second Reading Rev. 7:9, 14b-17, Gospel Jn 10:27-30

Today, the fourth Sunday of Easter the church celebrates Good Shepherd Sunday. Today is also observed as vocation Sunday when special prayers are offered for the increase of vocations to priesthood and religious life. We pray especially for all priests in the Lord's vineyard since priests are visible representation to us of Christ in His role as the Good Shepherd. Jesus tells us that He is the Good Shepherd who knows His sheep and cares for them. Jesus uses the image of a shepherd because during His time in Israel a good shepherd is known as one who is ready to lay down his life for his sheep. Therefore, in using this metaphor Jesus brings it clearly home that He is that shepherd who gives His life for us His sheep.

The first reading presents us with the missionary journey of Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. Their preaching in the synagogue generated two opposing reactions from the people, those filled with joy on hearing the good news and the violent reactions of those who reject the good news, the majority of them Jews. As a result, they turned to the Gentiles who were very excited to welcome the apostles. That scenario is not different from what still happens in our society today where the Gospel message is either rejected by many people who prepare to destroy the message and the messenger, while there are those who welcome the Gospel with great joy and prepare to share the testimony of the power of Jesus in their lives. According to John Bergsma a renowned Biblical scholar, "At all times, there are those who are embracing the church's preaching with joy and others who are stirring up persecution, hatred and violence. Christ's disciples, meanwhile, are always filled with joy and Holy Spirit, because they know, Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake".

In today's Gospel, we are given three important key words, to hear, to know and to follow. By Jesus saying "My sheep hear My voice", He tries to contrast our first parents Adam and Eve who instead of listening to the voice of God listened to the voice of the serpent. A good sheep must always hear the voice of the shepherd, if not the sheep ruins itself. To listen means to pay absolute attention to what the master says. To hear the voice requires much more than ordinary hearing, but a readiness to put into action what the voice of the Lord encourages us to do.

The third key word given to us today is "to follow". Having heard the word, one has to follow what the master says. If you listen and do not follow then it means you listen to your own voice and do your own thing. But to listen and follow the master means you allow the good shepherd to lead. We follow the Lord because He leads us to green pasture, He leads us in the right direction and He leads us to His Father. When following with faith we can do no wrong because His grace supports us.

However, the most captivating words are "I know them". To know means to have a good knowledge, to have a profound intimacy, a deeper understanding, a deep relationship not superficial, but complete. To say I know them, signifies I know them by name. This means Jesus our Shepherd knows us by name, He knows the core of our being, He knows our joys, our hopes, our grief, our weaknesses and our anxieties. He knows every single thing we go through now. He knows us the way we are. That is why we should not be afraid or ashamed to bring ourselves the way we are before Him. Let us come to Him with our brokenness, our fear and our anxieties. He will bandage us because He knows us through and through and would not be ashamed of our brokenness. Happy Sunday to you all.

Fr. Tony

Anointing of the Sick - Who Receives this Sacrament?

The Sacrament is NOT for those who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for them to receive this Sacrament has certainly arrived (SC73).

If a sick person who receives this anointing recovers their health, they can in the case of another grave illness receive this Sacrament again. It is fitting to receive the Anointing of the Sick just prior to a serious operation. The same holds for elderly whose frailty becomes more pronounced (CCC1515).

If you, a family member or someone you know desires the Sacrament of the Sick, please call the parish office, 928-855-2685 to make the necessary arrangements.

Why do we have to go to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation?

Sunday is a Holy day because Jesus made it Holy by His resurrection from the dead on Easter Sunday, the Holy Spirit made it Holy by descending from Heaven on the apostolic Church on Pentecost Sunday. From the beginning of the Church, Sunday has been designated "The Lord's Day" (Rev. 1:10). By her authority, the Church has made every Sunday a day of obligation; and she has designated a few other days of the year, which are of special liturgical importance, as Holy Days of Obligation. Attending Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation is a grave obligation unless there is a serious reason for being unable to attend (which does not include vacation – when a Catholic church is accessible).

SAVE THE DATE!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 8, 2022
4th Sunday of Easter

"Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start." (Pope Francis) We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through Him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God's pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day's end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost. ©LPi

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditations)

8 de mayo de 2022
4º Domingo de Pascua

En este IV Domingo de Pascua, dedicado al Buen Pastor. Reflexionaremos una pequeña parte de la Homilía sobre los Evangelios de San Gregorio Magno (540-604). Fue el sexagésimo cuarto papa de la Iglesia Católica. Es uno de los grandes padres de la Iglesia latina o de occidente. "Yo soy el buen pastor, yo conozco a mis ovejas, es decir las amo. Y mis ovejas me conocen. Como queriendo decir abiertamente: correspondo al amor de quien ama. El conocimiento precede siempre al amor de la verdad. Pregúntense, estimadísimos, si son ovejas del Señor, si lo conocen, si conocen la luz de la verdad. Hablo no solamente del conocimiento de la fe, sino también de aquel del amor; no solamente de creer sino también de obrar. San Juan, el evangelista, en efecto explica: 'Quien dice: conozco a Dios, pero no observa sus mandamientos, es un mentiroso' (1 Juan 2:4)". Y continúa su homilía: "Como el Padre me conoce y yo conozco al Padre, y ofrezco la vida por las ovejas" (San Gregorio).

Nuestro actual Pastor, el Papa Francisco, nos da el mensaje de la siguiente manera: "Nuestra vida está totalmente segura en las manos de Jesús y del Padre, que son una sola cosa: un único amor, una única misericordia, reveladas de una vez y para siempre en el sacrificio de la cruz. Él es nuestro guía, nuestro maestro, nuestro amigo, nuestro modelo, pero sobre todo es nuestro salvador. A veces Jesús nos llama, nos invita a seguirle, pero tal vez sucede que no nos damos cuenta de que es Él". ¿Qué voces escuchas actualmente? ¡Señor, que sea uno contigo y escuche tu voz!

Somos el Cuerpo de Cristo
Jaime Cortez

Estribillo: Somos el cuerpo de Cristo. Hemos oído el llamado. Somos el cuerpo de Cristo. Traemos su santo mensaje.

Cantor: Dios viene al mundo a través de nosotros.
Todos: Somos el cuerpo de Cristo.
Cantor: Al mundo a cumplir la misión de la iglesia,
Todos: Somos el cuerpo de Cristo.
Cantor: Cada persona es parte del reino;
Todos: Somos el cuerpo de Cristo.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio.

Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there & unite myself wholly to You never permit me to be separate from you. Amen
