Welcome!

You enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. As a baptized person, you enter it as a son or daughter of the Father in Christ. This House of God, therefore, is your family home. Come in then with humility of mind, joy of heart and thanks on your lips. Come in and pause in prayer in the midst of your busy life and its many worries.

Pentecost Sunday, May 20, 2018

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit; let us live, then, by the Spirit! That same Spirit, the Advocate, who “renews the face of the earth”, was given as a gift to the disciples to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, and to obtain forgiveness of sins.

SUMMER YOUTH CAMP FOR 1st THROUGH 12th GRADE

This summer Our Lady of the Lake will be hosting Totus Tuus, a fun-filled weeklong catechetical camp for 1st-12th graders.

Totus Tuus (Latin for “totally yours”) was inspired by Pope St. John Paul II who sought to bring people closer to Christ through devotion to His Blessed Mother. The program is authentically Catholic, with time spent attending daily Mass, praying the Rosary, and learning about the Faith, and authentically fun, with games, skits, songs, sports and even a water fight on the last day.

The program is run by college-aged missionaries and seminarians who embody the joy and life of the Gospel and who have radically given their summer to the Lord.

Dates & Times:
1st—6th grade
Monday, July 23rd – Friday, July 27th
9:00 am—2:30 pm

7th—12th grade
Sunday, July 22nd – Thursday, July 26th
7:00 pm—9:00 pm

Cost:
$25 per young disciple going into 1st through 6th grade
$15 per youth disciple going into 7th through 12th grade

Please inquire about scholarships for your disciples if you have a need.
Please register with Silvia in the Religious Education Office.

Today, Sunday, May 20th
Holy Family Parish Center
following the 10:30 am Pentecost Multicultural Mass
The historical event that the Catholic Church celebrates this Sunday is described in today’s Gospel as ‘Pentecost’: “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you”. Jesus breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained”. The Acts of the Apostles focus here on how the end of the Easter Season moves beyond the four Gospel accounts to the remainder of the New Testament. The Holy Spirit is the new law, the power that leads us to do good, from within our heart. The Holy Spirit is also a source of unity (it pulls down all barriers) and wherever it is, it destroys sin.

The first four books of the New Testament present the life, death and Resurrection of Christ in His earthly Body. The rest of the New Testament’s books present the life of the Church as the Mystical Body of Christ. Christ continued to walk this earth after His Ascension to the Father’s Right Hand, but in a radically different way. These 23 books—Acts of the Apostles, the 21 apostolic letters, and The Book of Revelation—offer a roadmap for us in the 21st century as we struggle to live, not as individual Christians, but as the conjoined members of the Mystical Body of Christ.

We are the Church of Pentecost. Jesus sends the Holy Spirit to us that we may become true sons and daughters of God. Every time we grant or receive forgiveness; every time we show concrete signs of reconciliation, justice, fraternity, openness, honesty, active charity; every time we transmit a genuine faith, every time we confess that Jesus Christ is Lord; every time we allow the Spirit to use us through His many gifts; every time we resist temptation, we experience a new Pentecost.

Anyone who wishes to make right choices in the affairs of life, to discern the truth in all occasions, to avoid sin and every occasion of sin must be disposed to receive the Holy Spirit. Give the Holy Spirit space to direct your life. He is a person you can receive and experience. Welcome Him in your life as a special friend. Pentecost celebrates this transition from the earthly life of Christ to the Mystical Body of Christ. The Power of the Holy Spirit alone makes the transition to this life possible.

The Second Reading focuses on the unique role of the Holy Spirit within the Church. It is a consequence of the presence of the Holy Spirit in a community. We are enriched by the gifts of the same Spirit, gifts that must not be a source of competition between us. Sometimes the Holy Spirit is metaphorically called “the soul of the Church”, in contrast to us human persons who are the body’s members. St. Paul uses three sets of contrasts to drive home the Holy Spirit’s unique role. Consider here just the second of these. While “there are different forms of service”, there is “the same Lord.” St. Paul here links the “service” of the Church’s members with the one “Lord”. The Church’s members “serve” their “Lord”. Perhaps this seems obvious. But it bears an important consequence for those who choose to practice stewardship as a way of life.

St. Paul is challenging those who trivialize the Power of the Holy Spirit and His Lordship. In our day when egalitarianism and individualism are so highly prized, we minimize the notion of God as our Lord. We might more easily consider God the Father as a “Lordly” figure. But we’re less inclined to consider Jesus our Lord, since we want in our day and time to consider Him more as a friend than Lord. The Church is God’s means to establish the rule of the Holy Spirit. The earthly purpose of the Holy Spirit’s varied gifts, service and workings is proclaimed in the refrain of Pentecost’s Responsorial Psalm: “Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.”

Baptism Classes

The Sacrament of Baptism is very important, and we continue to look at ways to improve the way we teach, the way we pass on the faith, to those who are seeking the Sacrament of Baptism.

We are now using "Reborn", found on Formed.org, as our main resource for baptismal preparation. The classes are still offered every month in both English and Spanish. The four hour baptismal preparation will be on the first Saturday of the month from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm or the first and second Thursdays of the month from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

You can register by calling Gaby, at the Parish Office, or visit our parish website, www.ourladyofthelakeromancatholic.org, for the class schedule or to register for the Baptism online.

The Feast of Corpus Christi

All Night Adoration

To honor and worship our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament we will have All Night Adoration starting at 8:00 pm Friday, June 1st and ending Saturday, June 2nd with Benediction at 7:00 am. Annulment

What is an annulment? What if I have been married more than once? Do I need to petition for an annulment? If I am not Catholic, why do I need an annulment? Do both spouses need to be involved in the annulment process? These and other questions are answered in the brochure titled, “Annulments, Frequently Asked Questions” located at the bulletin rack in the narthex of the church.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord of the Harvest, help us to create a true culture of discernment and vocations in our parish so that all of us in this parish family may seek to faithfully offer our lives as a loving response to your first gift of life and love.

Illumine our families to be a light, working together to bring your kingdom of justice and peace, not just here in this community, but in the whole world.

By your Holy Spirit, may our hearts burn more and more to know Your Son, Jesus Christ, and to make Him known forever. Amen.

Oración por las vocaciones

Señor de la cosecha, ayúdanos a crear una cultura verdadera de discernimiento y vocaciones en nuestra parroquia, para que todos nosotros en esta parroquia familiar podamos ofrecer fielmente nuestras vidas como respuesta amorosa a tu primer don de la vida y el amor. Ilumina nuestras familias para ser luz, trabajando juntos para tener un reino de paz y justicia, no solo en esta comunidad, sino en el mundo entero. Que por tu Espíritu Santo, puedan nuestros corazones conocer más y más a tu hijo Jesucristo y darlo a conocer por siempre. Amen.

Saint Thomas Aquinas Prayer

St. Thomas Aquinas, patron of students and Catholic schools, I thank God for the gifts of light and knowledge he bestowed on you, which you used to build up the Church in love.

I thank God, too, for the wealth and richness of theological teaching you left in your writings. Not only were you a great teacher, you lived a life of virtue, and you made holiness the desire of your heart.

If I cannot imitate you in the brilliance of your academic pursuits, I can follow you in the humility and charity which marked your life.

As St. Paul said, “Charity is the greatest gift, and it is open to all.”

Pray for me that I might grow in holiness and charity.

Pray also for Catholic schools, and for all students.

In particular, please pray the growth of the Catholic School here at Our Lady of the Lake Parish. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER
(For those who are not able to receive Communion at this time)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

One Bread, One Body
John Foley

Refrain: One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless. And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man no more.

Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one for all.

Peace is Flowing Like a River
Unknown

Peace is flowing like a river,
Refrain: Flowing out through you and me;
flowing out into the desert, setting all the captives free.

Joy is flowing like a river,
Faith is flowing like a river,
Hope is flowing like a river,
Love is flowing like a river,

CLOSING SONG

The Spirit Is A-Movin’
Carey Landry

Refrain: The Spirit is a-movin’ all over, all over this land.
People are gatherin’, the church is born; the Spirit is a-blowin’ on a world reborn.
Old ones are dreaming dreams, and young men and women see the light.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
