To strengthen him for the journey, God provides Elijah with cake and water, reminiscent of his ancestors' Pasch. Thus he experiences the goodness of the Lord. Jesus, the bread of life, strengthens us for our journey, following his way of love.

Eucharist Adoration: An Invitation to the Veneration of Christ's Divine Presence

Beloved Parishioners,

The gospel reading for the past two weeks, and the following weeks is centered on John Chapter 6 where Jesus says I am the Bread of Life and the Eucharist. In follow up to this theme I wish to share reflection on Eucharistic Adoration which I have been encouraging all to make it as part of special devotion.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life (CCC 1322). As Catholics, we profess the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist which is the affirmation that Jesus Christ is truly present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—in the Eucharist. This doctrine has been foundational and operational in the Church since Christ instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper (Matthew 26:26-28, Mark 14:22-24, Luke 22:19-20, 1 Corinthians 11:23-25) but was definitively defined during the Council of Trent (1545-1563). Different Popes have explained this basic teaching in their writings. For instance, in Mysterium Fidei (1965), Pope Paul VI focuses on the mystery of the Eucharist, affirming the Church's belief in the real presence of Christ in the sacrament; further, in the encyclical Ecclesia de Eucharistia (2003), Pope John Paul II emphasizes the centrality of the Eucharist in the Church's life and its role in fostering unity among Catholics.

Given this esteemed place of the Eucharist in Catholic spirituality, one important and significant practice in our Catholic tradition is Eucharistic Adoration. Eucharist Adoration is a devotion which centers on the adoration of the Eucharist, the true Body of Christ. This adoration offers a unique way for us to encounter the divine, as well as provide a spiritual refuge and an opportunity for us to deepen our relationship with God. At its core, Eucharistic Adoration is an extension of the celebration of the Mass. During the Mass, the bread and wine are consecrated and become the Body and Blood of Christ. In Adoration, this consecrated Host is placed in a monstrance allowing the faithful to focus their devotion on this tangible representation of Christ. The practice is not merely a ritual; it represents a personal invitation to encounter Christ in His most intimate and accessible form.

The origin of Eucharistic Adoration can be traced back to the early Church, though it became more formalized in the Middle Ages. Saints like Thomas Aquinas and Julian of Norwich have written extensively about the mystery of the Eucharist and the importance of reverent worship. By the 13th century, the practice of reserving the consecrated Host in a special tabernacle for the purpose of Adoration became more widespread. This period also saw the development of the monstrance, which enabled a more visible and accessible form of worship.

The practice of Eucharistic Adoration provides us with several spiritual benefits. First, it offers us a space for quiet contemplation and prayer, away from the distractions of daily life. This silence is often seen as a form of divine dialogue, where we can present our concerns, seek guidance, and experience a profound sense of peace. Again, it also encourages a form of worship that is both communal and individual. While many of us participate in Adoration in groups, the experience is deeply personal and can lead to significant spiritual insights and growth. Additionally, Eucharistic Adoration fosters a sense of reverence and devotion in us because it reminds us of the sacrificial nature of Christ's love and the importance of living a life of holiness. This devotion also encourages acts of charity, prayer, and personal transformation, reflecting the central message of the Gospel such that many who engage in Adoration report a heightened sense of gratitude and a renewed commitment to their faith.

Theme: Jesus is Truly the Bread of Life that Strengthens Us

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, August 11, 2024

First Reading 1 Kings 19:4-8, Second Reading Ephesians 4:30-5:2, Gospel John 6:41-51

Elijah, in the first reading of today, presents a very despairing situation because of the challenges he faces in his ministry to the point that he prayed for death. However, instead of granting his request God sends him heavenly nourishment through the angels to keep him going. There are at times when we are confronted with life challenges like Elijah, we become so depressed that we may have prayed that God take our life. The good news is that the angels are never far from us when we face such life challenges. The angel of God comes as well to provide us the strength we need to embark on the journey of life but recognizing the angel depends on how open we are to see them in moments of trials and difficult situations. Paul, in the second reading, calls our attention to certain things we must get rid of in our life to enrich our relationship with God and one another. According to Paul, “All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting and reviling must be removed ... forgiving one another as God has forgiven us.” The truth is that resentment, bitterness, and anger not only create a big barrier in our relationship with God but can harm our physical health and even at times affect our internal organs. Anytime we allow bitterness, an unforgiving spirit and anger to take hold of us we chain ourselves and refuse to unlock the chain to set ourselves free.

The Gospel presents us with the encounter between Jesus and the Jews. They had been fed the previous day and they return hoping to be fed again but Jesus challenges them not to work for the food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life. They immediately demanded to be given such food so that they would not need to come back again and again. At that time Jesus tells them “I am the Bread of life that came down from heaven.” This became a surprising shock to them, and they could not understand how Jesus could make such a statement. That is why they murmured and asked themselves, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph. Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, “I am bread that have come down from heaven.”

The Jewish doubt at the time of Jesus has not changed with some of the doubt of our time. The problem of the Jews then was over familiarity with Jesus, and they could not understand how this man they know very well would say that He came down from heaven. In the same way, a lot of people including Catholics still question if Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. This situation has equally led to the poor reception of the sacrament. The truth remains that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist, and we can only see it with the eyes of faith.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Virtue of the Month

The Virtue for August is Honesty.

Ways to cultivate the virtue of Honesty:

Tell the truth even if it means you will get in trouble.

Not covering up mistakes.

Telling the Truth in all situations.

Speaking up when someone is being treated wrongly.

Don't hide things - God knows your heart.

Dear Jesus, You said, "I am the Truth." You have made me for Truth because you have made me for Yourself! Help me to be honest in all that I say and do, that I might know true happiness in You.

Colossians 3:9

"Do not lie to one another for you have put off the old self with its habits and have put on a new self."

Corporate Communion for the Catholic Daughters and Knights of Columbus will be Sunday, August 18th
at the 8:45 am Mass.

Children's bulletins are available at the entrances to the Church to take home.
You are also welcome to take this bulletin home with you.

Holy Happy Hour

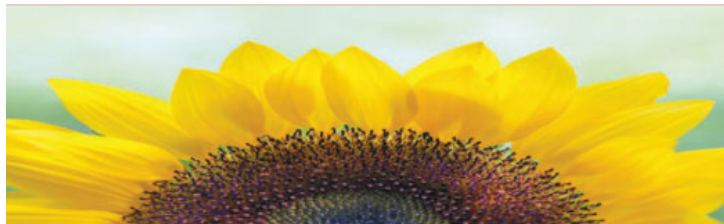

All are invited to join Deacon
Patrick and family for a Holy
Hour with Eucharistic Adoration,
Music, Reflections and Praise on Friday, August 16th at 6:00 pm in the church.

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW

8:45AM MASS CHOIR

While we are still awaiting a qualified candidate for the position of Accompanist for the 8:45am Mass Choir, we are going to forge forward with something brand new: an a cappella choir-meaning a choir with no instruments. To make this choir successful, we need voices. . .LOTS of voices who are willing to make a "joyful noise" to the Lord and for the Liturgy. YOU—YES: YOU are invited to come and participate in this joyful noise-making!

Our first rehearsal will take place on Thursday, August 29th from 6:30pm–8:00pm in the Choir area. There is "safety in numbers" so bring a friend! The ability to read music is helpful, but not necessary. The ability to carry a tune, however, is! We will be providing the larger choir (a.k.a the assembly!) with choral support and harmonies that make our collective musical offering to God a true prayer. Women and Men, High School age and up, are invited to participate. For more information, please contact Terri McGrath at tmcgrath@ourladylh.org.

Parish Council Communication Corner

To keep our parishioners better informed, the Parish Council has established this Communication Corner. Each week we will provide an update concerning a specific committee or answers to comments from the suggestion box. We hope you find this channel of communication helpful and informative.

Q: During Advent could we please have an Advent wreath at the altar so during the mass we can see we it-children can look at it more easily. Every church I've been to during Advent the wreath was placed where everyone could see it.

A: Wonderful suggestion. The Council will talk to Father Tony and the Liturgy Committee to explore how we can add an Advent wreath (which is more visible) to enhance the Advent season.

Q: Who are the members on the Parish Council and the Finance Council? Only the Parish Council chairman is named in the bulletin.

A: The Finance Council members are:

Dan Mathews, Suzannah Ballard, Ross Johnson, Denise Robbins, Lisa Grunow, Francis Delach

The Parish Council members are:

Dante Marinelli, Yvonne Hanzen, Paula Levensailor, Chris Aldridge, Rick Allsup, Israel Amaro, Bill Meehan, Wayne Phillips, Felis Ramirez, Pat Rooney

Q: Maybe a dual area/location/time for others that don't need food or to be fed but need gas card for fuel. Thank you.

A: As needed as this service may be, currently there is no program available that supports gas cards.

Q: To have all the church events and times on the calendar that is in the church bulletin. Right now, different events are scattered throughout the bulletin.

A: Currently, there is an inclusive "Our Lady of the Lake Calendar of Events". The calendar can usually be found within the bulletin on the first Sunday of the month. Much effort and communication has been made to ensure all Ministries submit their events so they can be captured on the parish calendar. There will always be last-minute events and needs. As event dates draw closer, an additional entry may appear in the bulletin as a reminder.

Q: Please continue the basket for blessed items to be deposited in the back of the church.

A: We will continue to offer the basket in the narthex for blessed items to be deposited. Having the basket for blessed items is essential and parishioners are using it.

ENTRANCE SONG

Table of Plenty

Dan Schutte

Refrain: Come to the feast of heaven and earth! Come to the table of plenty! God will provide for all that we need, here at the table of plenty.

O come and sit at my table where saints and sinners are friends. I wait to welcome the lost and lonely to share the cup of my love.

O come and eat without money; come to drink without price. My feast of gladness will feed your spirit with faith and fullness of life.

Glory to God

Tony Alonso

Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our Prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm 34

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

(For those who are not able to receive Communion at this time)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be

OFFERTORY SONG

The Cry of the Poor

John B. Foley

Refrain: The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas; and to hearts broken God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Ev'ry spirit crushed God will save; will be ransom for their lives; will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

COMMUNION SONG

The Supper of the Lord

Laurence Rosania

Refrain: Precious body, precious blood, here in bread and wine; here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured; come, share the supper of the Lord.

This is the bread of God coming down from heav'n, giving life to us, to all the world.

"I am the living spring of eternal life; you that drink from me shall not thirst again."

"I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you; you that eat this bread shall never die."

"All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God."

CLOSING SONG

Blest Be the Lord

Dan Schutte

Refrain: Blest be the Lord; blest be the Lord, the God of mercy, the God who saves. I shall not fear the dark of night, nor the arrow that flies by day.

You will release me from the nets of all my foes. You will protect me from their wicked hands. Beneath the shadow of his wings I will rejoice to find a dwelling place secure.

I need not shrink before the terrors of the night nor stand alone before the light of day. No harm shall come to me, no arrow strike me down, no evil settle in my soul.

CANTO DE ENTRADA

Vamos Cantando al Señor

Juan A. Espinosa

Vamos cantando al Señor: El es nuestra alegría.

La luz de un nuevo día venció la oscuridad, que brille en nuestras almas la luz de la verdad.

La roca que nos salva es Cristo nuestro Dios, lleguemos dando gracias a nuestro redentor.

Los cielos y la tierra aclaman al Señor: "ha hecho maravillas inmenso es su amor".

Unidos como hermanos venimos a tu altar, que llenes nuestras vidas de amor y de amistad.

Salmo 33

Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

CANTO DE OFERTORIO

Llevemos al Señor el Vino y el Pan

Carmelo Erdozain

Llevemos al Señor el vino y el pan. Llevemos al altar la viña, el tragal.

Estríbillo: El Señor nos dará. El nos dará su amistad.

Llevemos al Señor pureza y amor. Llevemos al altar justicia, hermandad.

Llevemos al Señor trabajo y dolor. Llevemos al altar ofrendas de paz.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio. Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CANTO DE COMUNIÓN

Tú Cuerpo y Sangre, Señor

Eleazar Cortés

Déjanos disfrutar eternamente de tu divinidad por el misterio de tu amor, tu cuerpo y sangre, Señor.

Pan que del cielo bajó a darnos la eternidad.

Aquel que coma este pan ya nunca más morirá.

El Sacramento de amor que el mismo Cristo nos da.

Pan de justicia y verdad que nos alivia el dolor.

CANTO DE SALIDA

Danos Un Corazón

Juan A. Espinosa

Danos un corazón grande para amar. Danos un corazón fuerte para luchar.

Hombres nuevos creadores de la historia, constructores de nueva humanidad. Hombres nuevos que viven la existencia como riesgo de un largo caminar.

Hombres nuevos, luchando en esperanza, caminantes sedientos de verdad. Hombres nuevos, sin frenos ni cadenas, hombres libres que exigen libertad.

The Unity Prayer

MY ADORABLE JESUS,

MAY OUR FEET JOURNEY TOGETHER.

MAY OUR HANDS GATHER IN UNITY.

MAY OUR HEARTS BEAT IN UNISON.

MAY OUR SOULS BE IN HARMONY.

MAY OUR THOUGHTS BE AS ONE.

MAY OUR EARS LISTEN TO

THE SILENCE TOGETHER.

MAY OUR GLANCES

PROFOUNDLY

PENETRATE EACH OTHER.

MAY OUR LIPS PRAY TOGETHER TO

GAIN MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL FATHER.

AMEN
